Mayor's Welcome

Mayor McCullough announced that he would be meeting with Assemblymen Brown and Amodeo as well as, Senator Whelan to discuss the impact on homes affected by Superstorm Sandy and the October 2012 revaluation. Mayor McCullough felt the State of New Jersey needs to establish criteria to address storm damaged properties.

Mayor McCullough announced the representatives from FEMA were in attendance to provide information to the public regarding FEMA assistance and programs.

FEMA Presentation

Mayor McCullough introduced FEMA Representatives, Randy Mittner, Inter-Governmental Affairs, Kaitlynn Wolf, Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Specialist, Bill McDonald, Deputy Director of Mitigation – Advisory and Base Flood Elevations, Rich Sabota, National Flood Insurance and Mark Jamison, Small Business Administration Disaster Loans.

Each FEMA representative gave a brief overview of the services regarding their department/program and welcomed the public to visit each representative to discuss their particular concerns at the conclusion of the Township Committee's meeting.

General Public Discussion

Lisa Broom-Smith, 204 Genoa Avenue, West Atlantic City asked if financial assistance was available to help with the reconstruction of her home. Mayor advised Ms. Broom-Smith to speak with the appropriate FEMA representative following the conclusion of the Township Committee meeting.

Virginia McMahon, 209 West Plaza Place, West Atlantic City asked where to file her request to be placed on the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program list. Mayor McCullough advised all requests should be submitted to the Township Administrator's office.

Richard Black, 1112 Bay Drive, West Atlantic City, inquired about base flood elevations and possible alternatives to raising a dwelling. Mr. Black was advised to address his concerns to FEMA representatives.
