

New Jersey Youth Sports Alliance Coaching Clinic

The Egg Harbor Township Parks and Recreation Department will be sponsoring coaching certifications by the New Jersey Youth Sports Alliance (NJYSA). This nonprofit organization is dedicated to improving the youth sports experience for thousands of children in New Jersey through volunteer coaches' education. Personnel from the Recreation Department will hold clinics, via video tape and live presentation. The course is for individuals with interest in or actively involved in coaching youth sports teams. The course will focus on the fundamentals needed to coach any youth sport successfully. Participants will learn the responsibilities of being a coach; effective methods of teaching sport skills; how to send positive messages to athletes; how to conduct a safe program and manage risks, and much more.
